

We're recruiting for...

Supply Planner

About the role

We're recruiting for the role of Supply Planner based at our Kirkby Malzeard site.

The Supply Planner holds a key position in both the business as a whole and within the Supply Chain Team here at Wensleydale Creamery.

Working closely with the Supply Chain Manager, production and planning teams, you will formulate and present a structured supply plan for the companies finished and intermediate products. As part of a small team, with scope for progression your understanding of food safety and technical compliance will help you construct a well-balanced forward supply forecast and short view production plan - maximising service level and minimising waste. You will contribute to multi-functional meetings both with internal teams and external customers and will be expected to partake in regular team meetings and reviews.

This role is permanent, full time and attracts a competitive salary.
